TODAY

It's too funny its 2:30 a.m. over here and I heard my phone go off and I looked up to hear what the noise was, I saw the text message from you on the group will you simply said OMG

OMG ? I don't know how long you have known i, I have never bullshitted you, I don't know why you possibly think when I said I don't want people to use the dictionary you know or you should know , that the only thing that works is single syllable words and to make it as simple as possible for Every man, to understand in whatever his native language is the most simplest most direct way of communicating, just to keep it simple

The last thing I heard from you is Dean Clifford has done the same thing? Dean Clifford is clueless

Not one time have I heard Dean Clifford mention God

Not one time have I ever heard Dean Clifford give credit to anybody other than to himself

All I hear is how Dean Clifford is going to attack the legal Society and go out to all the judges that he BELIEVES did him wrong,

He is going down some totally insane crazy path, when I was in Canada I met a man who offered to Dean Clifford to learn how to use a sniper rifle and Dean took him up on it and Dean learned how to use a sniper rifle, the man offered me the same and I said why in the world would I want to learn how to use a sniper rifle? I don't want to ever learn how to kill somebody else's son or daughter

When I went up to help Jake the Indian Jake was going to kill himself and commit suicide on the Sunday just after I got there, I walked and talked with him and I convinced them how wonderful it's going to be to go to federal prison and when he went to federal prison it was

Dean Clifford had gone up there a few months before I got up there Jake the Indian gave him and his Partner TENs of thousands of dollars and the ONLY thing that Dean Clifford did was have sex with one of his relatives and his cohort/partner did was he wrote some ridiculous appeal, that was about 3 inches thick

, The only problem with writing an appeal and might be a good idea well it's an absolute essential idea to have the final Judgment of the Court which never existed for Indian Jake,

To compare me with Dean Clifford is obscene,

When I helped your girlfriend get out of that credit card debt your girlfriend Nancy I told you how damn dangerous it was and you didn't believe me she took it as a total joke so did her son, but for you I helped her anyway even though I told you I did not want to do it that it was too dangerous and now you think when I say giving out the dictionary is too dangerous you think that too is a f* joke

I am not trying to setup a private member Association like the BAR , I want every man and woman on planet Earth to be in an understanding of the "LORE"

There was a man just at my home here for 2 weeks from Scotland he and his friends offered me 1.4 million f dollars I told him unfortunately I cannot come to Scotland and help them right now because I have to take care of puppies and kittens I'm telling you Dean Clifford would go up there in a half a heartbeat and go get that f money if you don't f believe me I'll have the man from Scotland talk to me on the phone and I will post it up on either my website or Whatsapp

In the past I had turned down 1.1 million dollars to stay home to take care of my mom and my son while Frank was in jail I would like to see how fast you would turn down 1.1 million dollars

You might not be happy because you didn't know how to figure out how to deal with the IRS or how to deal with child support will have to do with garnishment of a retirement pension check, you might say I'm full of sbut I guess you just not ready to understand

I gave you all of those videos of the seminars, years ago with the understanding that you are going to break them apart into separate categories for some reason you did not do it and for some reason you chose not to return them,

Believe me I gave up a long time ago hoping that you would take them apart, you had fallen off of the radar for many many months and when I found out that you were dealing with a woman who is trying to get something for free I had warned you that women will come to you if you possess knowledge to take care of their legal or lawful problems and exchange for sex or love

For some reason you did not believe i

For some reason this woman named Karen felt that there was a need to tell me that you had lied to me and said that you are not my friend

For some reason your wife Karen felt the need to warn me to tell me that Gus is not your friend

For some reason your wife Karen needed to tell me that if I helped she would send me audio proof, proving that I should not trust you proving that you are not who you said you are and that you are not my friend, to this date I have not listened to the audio recordings, I was hoping eventually you would make contact and you explain why she would send me voice recordings of you saying what you said about i

I kind of had an idea the reason why you're not making contact with i for all this time is that you figured I listen to to the audio recordings that Karen made Karen your wife

And you may believe that I think my s don't stink

But I do know what I do now

And one thing I do know and all the time that I've known you not one time have I heard you mention God

Everyday that I spoke with you that I knew you that you live with i

I was hoping one day you would say the word god

I don't know what happened in your life

I don't know whatever happened in your heart

I don't know why God is Not There

I don't know why you don't give God 100% credit for every single thing in your life

I honestly feel sorry for you that I've never heard the word god mentioned in a single sentence between you and i

I hope you find God in your heart before it's too late

I know all the fancy books and a multi syllable dictionaries ridicule and mock people such as myself for having an infantile ridiculous believe and an intelligent creator

I know we have talked about many things in the past but never one time did you ever mention God

The man I enjoy talking to most that I've ever met on planet Earth so far is a man named Timothy who's on my WhatsApp chat group who travels all around the Asian continent I need transcribes technical Manuals from English into foreign Asian languages

What I enjoy most about Timothy is that he honestly talks maybe 1% about law lore and his IRS tax problems and his student loan payments the 99% of the time we talk about God

We talk about what is our purpose for inhaling and exhaling

We talk about our purpose for why we are here and how we could help the greater good

Believe me for as long as I've known you I was always praying for the day that you would want to talk about why we are here what this is all about what is the purpose of inhaling and exhaling and how we could do all we can do for the greater good but unfortunately we never had that conversation so all I can do is wish you well I hope you find God in your heart someday I hope you find it before it's too late I feel the sadness for you

Honestly I'd appreciate if you don't respond to this text message it took me over an hour and I need to sleep I've got way too much f s* to do in my life way too many f people way too many animals way too much responsibilities way too much stress I have to expend any more energy to try to justify what I do and why I do what I do to you

Take care Godspeed
